

TRACEY SCOTT BIO

“Leadership is unlocking people’s potential to become better.”
Bill Bradle

- I am married with two children and the owner and director of a dairy farm in the Kaipara District.
I work in administration at a school in Dargville.
- Previously:
Worked part-time in Dargville for a Chartered Accountant specialising in farm accounting and charity reporting and compliance
A Japanese-speaking Flight Attendant at Air New Zealand
Church Treasurer
- I am a Trustee on the Ruawai Primary School Board, and the Treasurer for the local cricket club.
I have a Diploma in Japanese language and have nearly completed my Degree in Bachelor of Business Studies.
My passion is my children and their activities. I enjoy encouraging youth and empowering to succeed.
Actively involved in several local sports groups.
Passionate about my community.
I am a volunteer teacher of Japanese language at the Primary School.
I am involved in back-stage makeup at the local Little Theatre.
I love cooking and entertaining.

SKILLS & STRENGTHS

- Qualified Accounting Technician
- Governance experience with the School Board of Trustees
- Treasurer of a local church
- Diploma of Japanese language